NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: July 25, 2013*Released: July 26, 2013

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION:

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”) issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), and Section 1.80 of the Commission’s Rules (the “Rules”),<sup>1</sup> we find that Price Media Corporation (the “Licensee”), licensee of Station KWBj-CD (the “Station”), apparently willfully and/or repeatedly violated: (i) Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules by failing to file timely with the Commission the Station’s Children’s Television Programming Reports<sup>2</sup> and (ii) Section 73.3514(a) of the Rules by failing to report the violations in its renewal application.<sup>3</sup> Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of three thousand dollars ($3,000).

II. BACKGROUND:

2. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires each commercial broadcast licensee to maintain a public inspection file containing specific types of information related to station operations.<sup>4</sup> As set forth in subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), each commercial television licensee is required to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children’s Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398) for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts that it made during that quarter to serve the educational and informational needs of children. That subsection also requires licensees to file the reports with the Commission and to publicize the existence and location of the reports.

3. Section 73.3514(a) of the Rules provides that “[e]ach application shall include all information called for by the particular form on which the application is required to be filed. . . .” Section II, Question 4 of the Form 303-S license renewal application requires licensees to report any “violations of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or the rules or regulations of the Commission during the preceding license term” and to “submit an explanatory exhibit providing complete descriptions of all violations.”

4. On January 24, 2013, the Licensee filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for Station KWBj-CD (the “Application”).<sup>5</sup> In Exhibit 6 to the application, the Licensee reported that the Station did not provide information identifying CORE children’s programming to the publishers of program guides, as required under Section 73.673 of the Commission’s Rules. However, the Licensee failed to report that its Children’s Television Programming Reports were not filed in a timely manner three times during the previous license period.<sup>6</sup>

III. DISCUSSION

5. The Licensee’s failure to file with the Commission in a timely manner its Children’s Television Programming Reports for three quarters constitutes an apparent willful and/or repeated violation of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii). Moreover, the Licensee’s failure to report these violations in its renewal application constitutes a violation of Section 73.3514 of the Commission’s Rules.<sup>7</sup>

6. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully and/or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.<sup>8</sup> Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.<sup>9</sup> The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,<sup>10</sup> and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.<sup>11</sup> Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”<sup>12</sup>

7. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for failure to file a required form.<sup>13</sup> In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”<sup>14</sup> In this case, the licensee failed to file its Children’s Television Programming Reports in a timely manner for three quarters, and we therefore conclude that the Station is apparently liable for a $2,000 forfeiture for this apparent violation. We <sup>6</sup> We would be inclined to excuse a limited number of late filings as de minimis if the reports were filed close to the deadline. Here, however, one of the reports was filed over a year after the deadline and the other two reports were filed several months late.

further find that the Licensee omitted information regarding violations from its renewal application and is therefore liable for an additional $1,000 forfeiture.<sup>15</sup> We thus conclude that the Licensee is liable for a total forfeiture of $3,000 for these apparent violations.

<sup>15</sup> Based upon the record before us, we think that an admonishment is warranted for the station's failure to identify CORE children's programming for publishers of program guides. Moreover, we reduced the standard forfeiture amount that would be assessed based on the Licensee's failure to identify in the renewal application the late-filed Children's Television Programming Reports because the Licensee identified the other violation.
